25TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all." Taking a child, he placed it in their midst, and putting his arms around it, he said to them, "Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me." - Mk 9:35b-37a

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. ©LPi

Priest, Prophet, and King

- Jen Arnold, M.A. in Theology and Catechetics

Jesus Christ, the Incarnate Word of God, had a three-fold office and mission during His time with us on Earth. He was priest, prophet, and king. However, He did not simply occupy these roles like those before Him. We have plenty of examples of great priests, prophets, and kings throughout scripture and salvation history. Rather, He came to fulfill each of those roles in its perfection so that the Kingdom of Heaven might be made manifest on Earth.

When we are baptized, we are conformed to Christ and we become one of the members of His body with Christ as the head. We are animated by the Holy Spirit. Due to this conformity with Him, we become cooperative participants in this three-fold office, so that we can continue His mission of growing His kingdom long after His ascension into Heaven.

> That is, the faithful, who by Baptism are incorporated into Christ and integrated into the People of God, are made sharers in their particular way in the priestly, prophetic, and kingly office of Christ, and have their own part to play in the mission of the whole Christian people in the Church and in the world. (CCC #897)

Now, there is probably a good chance you do not go about your daily life thinking about how you might be fulfilling your Christian duty as priest, prophet, and king, so we will take a closer look at what this means for us as the lay faithful members of the Church.

Mission Statement: Corpus Christi Catholic Church strives to be a welcoming community proclaiming the love of God and fostering a life-long personal relationship with Jesus Christ and His Church through Scripture, Sacraments, and service.

Offering a Mass Intention

The Mass is the greatest possible prayer of intercession insofar as it is the perfect offering of Christ to the Father by making present the paschal mystery of His death and resurrection. Request a Mass offering for the intentions of a living person or for the repose of the soul of a deceased person. Requesting a Mass Intention is now available online at https://www.osvhub.com/corpus-christi-cath-church/forms/mass-intention, or you may call or stop by the office.

HOMES ARE KNOWN TO HAVE BEEN DESTROYED. DOZENS OF PUBLIC BUILDINGS—HOSPITALS, SCHOOLS, HOTELS, CHURCHES AND BUSINESSES—SUFFERED SIGNIFICANT STRUCTURAL DAMAGE OR HAVE COLLAPSED

A voluntary special collection is taking place until Sept. 30 to support the humanitarian, long-term recovery resulting from the hardships faced by the people of Haiti following the August 14, 2021, earthquake that struck the country. Over 1,400 people have lost their lives and thousands more were injured. You can donate online by clicking on the following link, which is also available in the most recent e-newsletter sent on Sept. 15:

Priest – Christ's first office is that of priest. We may think of many things when we think of a priest. We think of shepherds, fathers, and spiritual leaders. However, a priest has one primary job over all others and that is to make sacrifices. Priests from the Old Testament made sacrifices with both animals and the first fruits of their harvest to give praise and thanksgiving to God the Father for His blessings upon them. Jesus fulfilled the priesthood by making the perfect sacrifice of Himself, the unblemished Lamb of God, on the crucifix, to make atonement for our sins. We could never match Jesus' priestly sacrifice, but we are certainly called to participate in it in our daily lives. We can choose to make sacrifices by offering our daily work to the Lord, forgoing complaining, dying to ourselves for the greater good of another, and placing our commitment to our vocation on a figurative altar before God. In thoughtfully offering these sacrifices throughout our day, we share in the priestly office of Christ. "And so, worshipping everywhere by their holy actions, the laity consecrate the world itself to God, everywhere offering worship by the holiness of their lives" (CCC #901). When we offer our entire lives and everything we do back to the Lord, we are duly worshipping God in all things. Note here also, the words we say during the Liturgy of the Eucharist. The priest says: "Pray, brethren (brothers and sisters), that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father." We then respond: "May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church." By reciting these words at every Mass, you are acknowledging your role in the priesthood of Christ and laying your sacrifices on the altar along with the celebrating priest as he re-presents the one perfect sacrifice of Jesus. We should not be mere bystanders at Mass, but instead, be fully and intentionally cooperating in the priestly office.

Prophet – The second office of Christ is that of prophet. When we think of the prophets of the Old Testament, we recall how they prepared the way for Jesus to come. They proclaimed God's will, called for repentance, implored conversion through evangelization, and warned of the dangers of disobedience. Jesus then came to fulfill the prophetic office since He is the Word of God in the flesh. In other words, He is the culmination and perfection of every prophetic word to come before Him. So, how do we carry on the prophetic office in our world today? "The holy People of God shares also in Christ's prophetic office: it spreads abroad a living witness to him, especially by a life of faith and love and by offering to God a sacrifice of praise, the fruit of lips praising his name." (Lumen Gentium #12). When we speak or act, we ought to do so as Christians in a way that gives witness to Jesus, so that others may encounter Him through us. This will look different for each of us, as we all have different gifts, and each situation will have its own nuances. However, always be prepared. You may be called to teach, to be a witness of love, to evangelize, or even to admonish at any given time. So long as you seek to be sustained by the Spirit of Truth and your motivation is love of God and love of others, you are participating in the prophetic office of Christ.

King – The final office of Christ on Earth was that of a king. One way we can participate in the kingship of Jesus is by striving for mastery over the reign of sin in our lives. The Catechism quotes St. Ambrose saying:

> That man is rightly called a king who makes his own body an obedient subject and, by governing himself with suitable rigor, refuses to let his passions breed rebellion in his soul, for he exercises a kind of royal power over himself. And because he knows how to rule his own person as king, so too does he sit as its judge. He will not let himself be imprisoned by sin or thrown headlong into wickedness. (CCC #908)

We see here that we have the power to be king over our own selves, rather than become slaves to our own vices. Also, Jesus' kingdom transcends any earthly kingdom and is, instead, a universal kingdom in which we are all united under Him. The word "Catholic" means universal and therefore describes the Church's missionary work of building up the heavenly kingdom on earth. "This character of universality which adorns the People of God is a gift from the Lord Himself. By reason of it, the Catholic Church strives constantly and with due effect to bring all humanity and all its possessions back to its source in Christ, with Him as its head and united in His Spirit." (Lumen Gentium #13). This distinction between earthly kingdoms and heavenly ones is important. Earthly kingdoms seek to amass or sustain land or riches. However, none of these temporal goods can serve us in the heavenly kingdom. For this reason, Jesus is a servant king – one who appeals to the inherent dignity of the human person and caters to those needs so that His subjects might inherit His kingdom. Jesus is a king who desires what is best for each of His subjects, rather than what is self-serving. Therefore, when we participate in the kingly office of Jesus Christ, we are doing so as servant leaders, always seeking to do what is best for others, so that they may experience the love and joy of the heavenly kingdom on earth.

Now that you know you are called to be a priest, prophet, and king, how does that change the way you perceive your day-to-day actions? Think of the different scenarios in which you typically find yourself, whether they be at work or in your personal life. How might you more intentionally approach them as a priest, a prophet, or a king? Can you be more intentional about offering sacrifice? Can you intentionally proclaim the word of God by the way you live your life? Can you be a master over the sin in your life or can you serve others for their greater good? Any of these simple daily actions can help you exercise your duties as priest, prophet, or king on a more regular basis in your life.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS
IN SERVICE TO ONE. IN SERVICE TO ALL.

Scholarship Winner Announced

The Knights of Columbus, Corpus Christi Council 10062 is pleased to announce, and congratulate, the 2021 winner of the Sal Scordato Scholarship Award. This year's winner has received a $500.00 grant towards her continued education. The Award is based on scholastic achievements, involvement in one or more parish ministries, and participation in community service activities. Financial status is not a consideration.

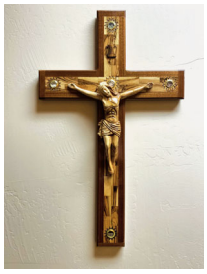
Eligible candidates must be a practicing Catholic related to a council Third Degree or Fourth Degree Knight in good standing as defined by Supreme Council. This Scholarship Award is named after deceased Past Grand Knight Sal Scordato, who was instrumental in starting this program in 1999. Since that time, the Corpus Christi Knights of Columbus have awarded over $25,000 to qualified students.

This year's recipient is Elizabeth Waypa, the daughter of Mark and Jane Waypa. She is attending Grand Canyon University where she is majoring in Hospitality Management. Lizzy was recognized for her many years of service as an Altar Server and Youth Group participant at Corpus Christi, as well as her community service through Girl Scouts, and many scholastic, extra-curricular, athletic, and fine arts achievements during her high school years at Seton Catholic Preparatory. Lizzy is looking forward to attending the Holy Spirit Newman Center on campus, as well as playing her flute and participating as a newly-selected member of the GCU Thundering Heard Pep Band.

Please join us in congratulating Lizzy for her many accomplishments and wishing her well on her college endeavors!

The Knights of Columbus Fall Pancake breakfast will take place Sunday, October 3 after the 7am, 8:30am and 10:30am Masses. Pancakes, eggs, breakfast sausage and more are included. Cost: $5/adult, $3/child and a special family rate, too! Be sure to make it to one of the best breakfasts in town!

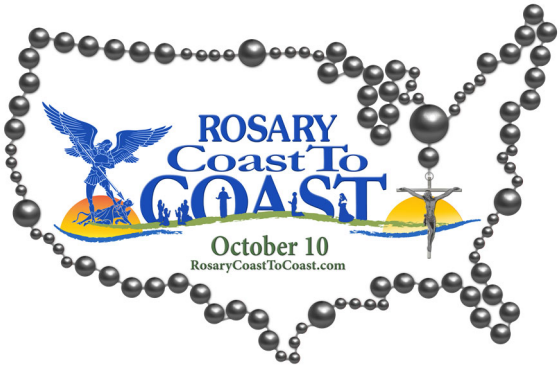
Hand Carved in Bethlehem



Please stop by the tables of religious wares (rosaries, statues, crucifixes, etc.) in the Pavilion after all Masses the weekend of OCTOBER 2ND & 3RD.

Ayman Khair will be here, representing about 180 Christian families from Bethlehem who had been dependent upon sales of their hand carved religious articles to tourists of the Holy Land. Due to conflict in the Middle East and the pandemic, tourism has been cut off since March of 2020. In order to survive, they have turned to Christian communities in the United States to purchase their articles. They have no other source of income, nor any support from the government.

These hand carved religious articles are beyond description. Carved from wood of the sacred Olive tree, this workmanship has been a tradition for these families for hundreds of years. It is hoped that through the efforts of Mr. Khair, that these families will have enough income to remain living in the Holy Land. Sadly, Christians now only make up less than 2% of the population. Thank you in advance for your support.



Corpus Christi is honored to join with the US Grace Force Rosary Coast to Coast as countless Catholics across our nation publicly pray the rosary and venerate the Blessed Sacrament for the protection and healing of our country. Join us on Sunday, October 10, 2021 at 1pm in the North parking lot. We will have chairs, shade and water.

How to prepare:
Spiritually : Be in a state of grace! Go to confession!
Physically: Wear comfortable clothing & bring your rosaries.

Adult Faith Formation is Kicking-off October with a Bang!

This October, Adult Faith Formation is kicking-off three programs designed to edify your faith. October 4, 2021, we will begin RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults). October 7, 2021, we are starting a Bible Study from Gen: 1:1 to Exodus 1:20. Finally, October 15, 2021, we are reconvening a parish favorite: Discovering Christ.

RCIA

RCIA is for people ready to unite themselves with the entire mystical body of Christ through the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, and First Eucharist).

RCIA takes a deep dive into the richness of the Catholic Church. It explores the Pascal Mystery of suffering, death, and resurrection, which many of us experience in our own lives many times .

When you become a full member of the Catholic Church, you never have to walk alone. Not only will you walk with Christ, you will walk with a community of believers here at Corpus Christi Catholic Church, ready to help you along your journey.

When I was a child, my father's job moved us to eight states by the time I was 13 years old. Having the Church community meant the world to me. I was always able to meet like-minded people no matter where my father was stationed. You can be a part of that community, too!

RCIA meets Monday nights from 6:00—8:00 pm.

Gen 1:1—Exodus 1:20

BIBLE STUDY

Genesis to Exodus 1:20 is a Biblical exploration of humanity's beginnings. This exciting Bible study will explore five key aspects of our journey with God.

1. Beginnings
2. The Law and the Land
3. The Monarchy
4. Exile and Restoration
5. The Ten Commandments

Come see how God began His relationship with His Chosen People and how His desire to have a relationship with His creation has helped form the people we are today.

The Bible Study will meet Thursdays after morning Mass (9:15 —10:15 am) as well as Thursday evenings (7:00 —8:00 pm).

For more info, please visit the parish website.

40 DAYS FOR LIFE

From Sept. 22 through Oct. 31, please join other Christians for the Fall 40 Days for Life campaign – 40 days of prayer and fasting for an end to abortion. You are invited to stand and peacefully pray the rosary during a 40-day vigil in the public right-of-way outside of the Tempe Planned Parenthood located at 1837 E. Baseline Rd. Tempe, AZ 85283. Please also help spread the word about this important community outreach. Entrance Antiphon

I am the salvation of the people, says the Lord.
Should they cry to me in any distress,
I will hear them, and I will be their Lord for ever.

Cf: Revelation 12:1

Gloria

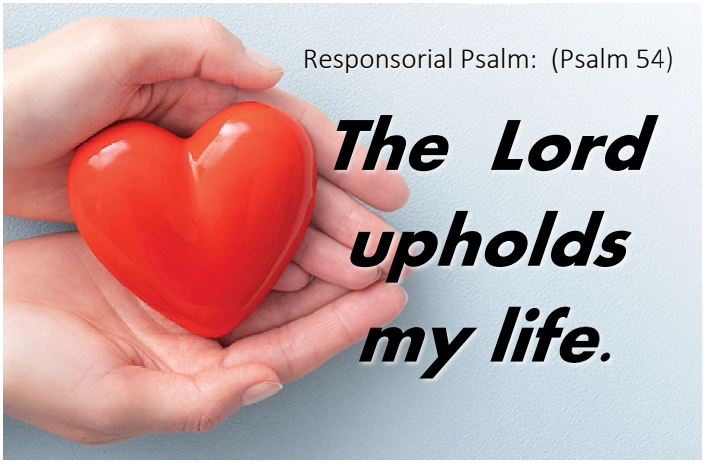
Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you,
we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.



Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God,
Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All bow at the words that follow,
up to and including "and became man."

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him we humbly pray;
and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host,
by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.
