THE BODY OF CHRIST—BECOMING DISCIPLES

MAY 12, 2024 | THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

During the season of Easter, what a great time to remember our mothers and ask for God's blessing on them. It is God who ultimately gave us life. It is through God's unselfish love — mirrored in our mothers' willingness to associate their love with God's and take the risk to love us into life — that we have the opportunity for life. We remember our mothers this Mother's Day with much love. Let us pray for each of them:

*Heavenly Father,
from the beginning you have chosen to entrust the human person to mothers in a special way.*

*We thank and praise you for the gift of mothers;
for their tenderness, care, and compassion, for their intuition and encouragement, and for their commitment and sacrifice.*

*Bless all mothers this day.
Keep, strengthen, and refresh them in your loving care.
May they be blessed by our open-hearted love and gratitude.
Amen.*

BABY SAFE HAVEN

Did you know that Corpus Christi is a Baby Safe Haven? A parent or agent of a parent can leave an unwanted, unharmed newborn baby at a designated Baby Safe Haven without fear of prosecution or answering any questions. They can remain anonymous. A baby can be left at the Parish Office during normal office hours. After hours, take the baby to the nearest fire station or hospital.

How the Message of Fatima is Still Relevant Today

Jen Arnold, M.A. in Theology and Catechetics — www.CatholicHeartAblaze.com

Tomorrow, we celebrate the feast of Our Lady of Fatima, which commemorates the visits Mary paid to three shepherd children – Lucia, Francisco, and Jacinta – in Portugal in 1917. During her visits with them, the Blessed Mother warned them about the world's state, the consequences of unrepented sin, and what would happen if people continued to offend God. She also communicated concrete actions the faithful can take to change the trajectory of the world. Even though these visions occurred at a specific time in history, the message of Fatima is still relevant today, and it is even more dire than when it was first presented. Therefore, it is a good idea to reexamine Fatima's message through the lens of our current times and learn how to engage in some of the battles we see going on around us today.

During Mary's visit with the children on July 13, 1917, she gave them a brief vision of hell. The vision was so terrifying that witnesses reported the children screaming and crying out. Here is Lucia's description of the vision:

As Our Lady spoke these last words, she opened her hands once more, as she had done during the two previous months. The rays of light seemed to penetrate the earth, and we saw as it were a sea of fire. Plunged in this fire were demons and souls in human form, like transparent burning embers, all blackened or burnished bronze, floating about in the conflagration, now raised into the air by the flames that issued from within themselves together with great clouds of smoke now falling back on every side like sparks in huge fires, without weight or equilibrium, amid shrieks and groans of pain and despair, which horrified us and made us tremble with fear. (It must have been this sight which caused me to cry out, as people say they heard me). The demons could be distinguished by their terrifying and repellent likeness to frightful and unknown animals, black and transparent like burning coals.

Lucia reported that they probably would have died of fright had Mary not already assured them they would be going to heaven. If they had already been assured of their salvation, why were children shown this terrible place? The vision was not given to the children for their own sake but because it was the foundation for the rest of the message. Through them, Mary was communicating that hell is real, is eternal, and that many souls were going there as a result of the profound sin in the world. There is motivation in knowing the consequences of what can happen when you don't listen and take action.

It's an unavoidable fact that humans are broken and we all sin. Scripture tells us that even good people sin, saying, "Though the just fall seven times, they rise again, but the wicked stumble from only one mishap (Proverbs 24:16)." So, if even the just person can fall seven times, how is it possible for anyone to go to heaven? The answer is in how a person responds to one's sins. The soul on the path to heaven recognizes his or her sin, understands the offense it causes God, experiences conversion, repents of the sin, offers reparation for the damage done, and strives to do better. The soul on the path to hell does not recognize the offense to God, is unrepentant, and persists in whatever sins the person is unwilling to change. While the concept is simple, it is hardly easy because we are still human, and Satan and his demons work very hard to tempt us every day. Because the Blessed Mother loves us as a mother does, the heart of her message is to call us all to conversion, giving us practical advice on how to do that to spare us a tragic and painful eternity. Mary provides us with more reason for joyful hope when she tells us that not only can we affect change in ourselves by taking action, but we can also affect change in others and even the entire world because we are all interconnected members of the body of Christ. The two keys are prayer and penance.

Prayer is a powerful weapon and arguably one that needs to be utilized more. When we ask God for help, he will help as a loving father does. It is not always in the way we may expect, or according to the timeline we desire, but whether we recognize it or not, he is dispensing his grace and mercy and assisting us when we ask. Therefore, when we are struggling with a particular sin and continue to stumble, it is advantageous for us to call upon the Lord for help because it is only through his grace, not our own strength, that things can really start to change. Furthermore, Mary tells us to pray for other souls and the world to help facilitate additional conversion from sin. If you look around and wonder why our world is worsening, you can be sure that people are not praying enough for anything to change. Imagine for a moment the entire world falling to its knees and calling out to God for his grace and mercy. The results would be indescribable.

The second key to conversion is penance. Penance “makes satisfaction for or expiates our sins” (CCC #1459). It recognizes the harm sin causes and allows us to participate in repairing the damage. We do this by offering our sufferings back to God for the conversion of sinners and by choosing to make sacrifices to increase the suffering, if even just a little, in honoring the suffering Jesus offered for us on the cross. Mary said to the children:

Sacrifice yourselves for sinners, and say many times, especially when you make any sacrifice: O Jesus, it is for love of You, for the conversion of sinners, and in reparation for the sins committed against the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Again, if you look at the world around you, it is not difficult to see that there is little intentional self-sacrificing going on as self-indulgence only increases.

The Fátima children, St. Francisco Marto, St. Jacinta Marto, and Venerable Lucia dos Santos, ages 7-10 years, impacted the world after the many apparitions of Mary they experienced. They shared Mary's call to pray the rosary and for peace in the world.

One of the biggest reasons we are not seeing much prayer and penance for the conversion of sinners is that fewer and fewer people believe in God, the saving work of Jesus Christ, and the reality of eternal life. If there is no God to care, what is the point of praying or offering sacrifice? This means it is up to those of us who do believe to increase our prayer and sacrifice even more to bridge the gap and make up for those who lack faith. It may seem unjust, but remember that your eternal reward will increase and that you will see souls in heaven who would not have been able to get there without your help. I imagine the heavenly reunion of sinners will be quite a sight, and no one will be keeping score at that point.

This week, think about your life and how you can incrementally increase your prayer and penance in your regular day-to-day activities. When each of us offers even small sacrifices, they can add up to an abundance of mercy and grace, so be encouraged that the smallest things matter. Prior to Mary's visits with the children, the Angel of Peace came to prepare them, and he taught them to say this prayer: My God, I believe, I adore, I hope and I love Thee! I beg pardon for those who do not believe, do not adore, do not hope and do not love Thee. Memorize this prayer, join it to your sacrifices, and say it as many times as possible for the conversion of the world.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS Vitalant Impact Award

For the second year in a row, the Corpus Christi Catholic Church community and Knights of Columbus Council 10062 were honored with a 2023 Impact Award on February 23rd at the Valentines for Life Luncheon, Vitalant's premier annual awards event, held at the JW Marriott Desert Ridge Resort. Attending the luncheon awards presentation were Mark Waypa - Corpus Christi K of C Blood Drive Chair, Bob Truxes – Council Grand Knight, and Fr. Rey Clutario – Pastor.

According to Vitalant, in 2023, 1,357 different Arizona organizations hosted a total of 3,572 blood drives. Of the organizations that hosted blood drives, only 77 organizations, including Corpus Christi, were recognized with an Impact award. This award was presented to the top 5% of organizations across Arizona in recognition of efforts in planning, volunteer donor recruitment, holding successful blood drives and for the meaningful impact that those blood drive results have on the local blood supply.

During the past four years, at Corpus Christi, our dedicated parish donors and local community neighbors have generously provided a total of 577 blood donations during our three parish-based blood drives each year. Because blood can be separated into components to benefit three patients, Corpus Christi blood donors have been able to help up to 1,731 patients in need of critical red blood cell transfusions or other blood products since March of 2020.

“Our deepest appreciation goes out to all parishioners, Ahwatukee neighbors, and K of C members who regularly donate blood and participate in various ways to make our blood drives a success,” said Mark Waypa, Blood Drive Chair. “We are humbled to accept this recognition on your behalf and proud to count on you as part of our very generous parish community.”

With a successful March 2024 blood drive already in the books, the next blood drives at Corpus Christi will be held later this year on July 21st and November 10th from 7:30am to 12:30pm in the Parish Center. Please consider registering to donate blood, especially if you have never done so. Help continue to build the Body of Christ in Ahwatukee by giving the Gift of Life to our neighbors in need!

Who brings good news, good news,
