THE BODY OF CHRIST—BECOMING DISCIPLES

SEPTEMBER 15, 2024 | 24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

CONSTITUTION WEEK

September 17 through 23 marks Constitution Week, a time to celebrate the signing of the Constitution of the United States of America in 1787. This foundational document, with its 4,440 words, is the oldest and shortest written constitution still in use today. It's a blueprint for the freedoms and rights we hold dear, shaping our democracy and guiding our nation's principles. During this week, take a moment to read and reflect on the Constitution, understanding not only what it says, but also what it represents. Let's become better informed citizens by knowing our rights and responsibilities as outlined by this historic document.

Heavenly Father, we thank You for the blessing of this great nation and the enduring legacy of the Constitution. As we observe Constitution Week, we remember the courage and wisdom of the Founding Fathers, who crafted this document to secure liberty and justice for all. Guide us, Lord, to uphold these values in our daily lives. May we always strive to be responsible citizens who respect the rights of others and work together for the common good. In Your holy name, we pray. Amen.

It'll help us financially, of course, but it also helps us run a better parish. Online gifts are easier to administer, more transparent, and more dependable.

To get started, scan the QR code here or click the green GIVE NOW button on corpuschristiphx.org and follow the instructions for repeat electronic giving to the Sunday Collection.

Regardless of how you choose to give, thank you for your continued generosity! Your support not only makes a difference within our own parish, but also throughout our local community!

As the Body of Christ — Becoming Disciples, we are called to serve each other in many ways. As a family of families, we know the needs are great. Together, we can do more than any one person or family could do alone.

BABY SAFE HAVEN

Did you know that Corpus Christi is a Baby Safe Haven? A parent or agent of a parent can leave an unwanted, unharmed newborn baby at a designated Baby Safe Haven without fear of prosecution or answering any questions. They can remain anonymous. A baby can be left at the Parish Office during normal office hours. After hours, take the baby to the nearest fire station or hospital.

What does it mean to be a Catechist?

Jen Arnold, M.A. in Theology and Catechetics — www.CatholicHeartAblaze.com

The Church designates the third Sunday of September, “Catechetical Sunday” as an opportunity to remember and pray for those who dedicate themselves to the ministry of catechesis and to renew our commitment to the ongoing formation of disciples. While we do have designated, formal catechists to provide faith formation at all levels, every Catholic is called to be a catechist, depending on the person’s state in life. When we were baptized, we were conformed to Christ in his three-fold role of priest, prophet, and king. These baptismal promises should compel us to lead others to Jesus and share the truth of who he is. To that end, today is a good day to reflect on the nature and importance of catechesis so that we better serve the Church’s mission in the salvation of souls.

The word “catechesis” comes from the Greek, meaning “to echo.” At its core, catechesis is the act of echoing or resounding the Church’s teachings to the world. As catechists, each of us is called to faithfully transmit the teachings of the Church, allowing them to resonate in the hearts and minds of those we encounter. Catechesis is intimately bound up with the whole of the Church’s life, as stated in the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC #7). Through catechesis, the Church grows internally and corresponds with God’s plan for humanity. This ministry of teaching in the name of the Church carries a great dignity that we ought to take seriously.

To form others in the faith, we must first tend to our own formation. After all, we can’t share what we don’t have. We should never stop asking questions and seeking the answers the Church provides. Abundant resources to facilitate continued learning are available to strengthen your resolve and confidence in knowing the truth. Some examples include books, Church documents, Relevant Radio, faith formation classes, bible studies, trusted Catholic websites, and podcasts. Of course, everyone should also have access to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, which is a straightforward way to look up what the Church officially teaches on any given topic. While I prefer the physical book, it is also available online and on several Catholic apps for smartphones. Find whatever means of learning suits you best, and always seek opportunities to continue to strengthen your own faith formation journey so that you can use it to serve the Church effectively.

When catechesis is carried out effectively, it bears abundant fruit in the life of the Church and society. Those well-formed in the faith are better equipped to live out their Christian vocations, whether in family life, the workplace, or the public square. They become active participants in the life of the Church, contributing their gifts and talents to build up the Body of Christ. Furthermore, solid catechesis helps to foster vocations to the priesthood, religious life, and dedicated lay ministry. By helping individuals discern God’s call in their lives, catechesis plays a vital role in ensuring the ongoing and future vitality of the Church.

In 1979, Pope St. John Paul II issued an apostolic exhortation entitled Catechesi Tradendae: On Catechesis in our Time. St. John Paul stated that his hope for the exhortation was that it:

... should strengthen the solidity of the faith and of Christian living, should give fresh vigor to the initiatives in hand, should stimulate creativity — with the required vigilance — and should help to spread among the communities the joy of bringing the mystery of Christ to the world. (CT 4)

It is a substantial document addressed to all members of the Church, so I highly recommend reading it in its entirety, but here are a few of the key points from the Pope’s thoughts on catechesis.

Pope St. John Paul II emphasizes the Christocentricity (Christ being at the center) of all authentic catechesis in Catechesi Tradendae by stating, "At the heart of catechesis we find, in essence, a person, the person of Jesus of Nazareth" (CT 5). Everything must be taught as it relates to Jesus Christ. As the Gospel of John says, he is "the way, and the truth, and the life" (Jn14:6), and it is through him that we are united with God. Since he is the truth, no dogma or doctrine in the Catholic Church is unrelated to him. Catechesis is "to seek to understand the meaning of Christ's actions and words and the signs worked by him" (CCC #426). Through this, we seek to understand his mystery and as it's revealed to us, "he can lead us to the love of the Father in the Spirit and make us share in the life of the Holy Trinity" (CT 5).

Since a person is at the heart of any catechesis — formal or informal — it must help facilitate a personal relationship with Christ. It ought to aim to bring individuals into a deep, intimate communion with the person of Jesus. It should not be about merely imparting knowledge, but rather, fostering a close relationship with Christ. However, to do this authentically, you must nurture your own intimate relationship with Jesus through prayer and formation.

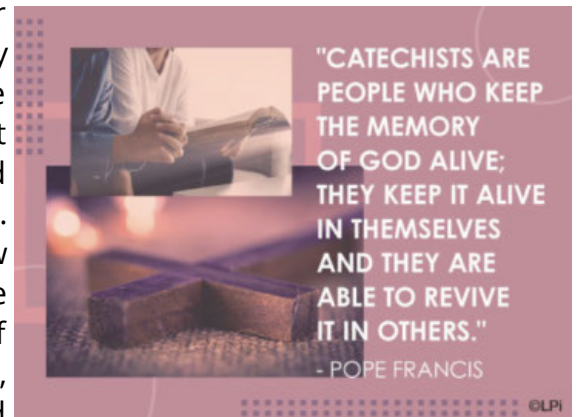

While the catechist is a teacher, Jesus Christ is the true teacher, as everything in the catechism has been handed down from him through apostolic succession. You, as the catechist, are "Christ's spokesman, enabling Christ to teach with [your] lips" (CT 6). To follow in the words of St. Paul, "Yet I live, no longer I, but Christ lives in me" (Gal 2:20). In catechesis, there is no room for personal opinion, interpretation, or agenda as it relates to the Church's teachings. We cannot alter the truth Jesus teaches. Whenever we are discussing Church teaching with someone, we must clearly convey how it relates to Jesus Christ to maintain Christocentric catechesis. "My teaching is not my own, but is from the one who sent me" (Jn 7:16).

Even Church teachings on other subjects are still Christocentric in nature. Most notably, all the Church's dogmas and doctrines regarding Mary point us to her son, Jesus Christ, and protect the truth about who he is. For instance, the Church teaches that Mary was immaculately conceived "by a singular grace and privilege of almighty God and by virtue of the merits of Jesus Christ" not because of anything she did (CCC #491, emphasis added). Mary is the Ark of the New Covenant, a living tabernacle who carried the holiest of holies in her womb. Therefore, she "was enriched by God with gifts appropriate to such a role" (CCC #490, Lumen Gentium 56) which was consistent with God's own commands in handling his Holy covenants. So, remember, when you share what the Church teaches on any topic, you need to keep its relationship to Jesus in mind to help connect the dots.

While each us may not be formally called to be a catechist, we each have a responsibility to catechize some individuals in our lives — children, friends, family, and co-workers — so it is essential to know the truth and communicate it using our specific gifts. Look for opportunities to share your faith with others, whether through formal teaching roles or simply by living as a witness to Christ in your daily life. Take some time today to pray for catechists!

WHAT IS A JUBILEE YEAR?

Why is Celebrating in Rome Particularly Special?

What is a Jubilee Year?

Every 25 years, the Church celebrates a Year of Jubilee. The origin of this celebration stems from our Jewish roots where a jubilee year was called every 50 years. The jubilee stood as a reminder of God's providence and mercy and served as a call for all to get right with one another and with God. Given its depth and beauty, the Catholic Church not only adopted this celebration, but also decided to celebrate it twice as often!

The theme for Jubilee 2025 is "Pilgrims of Hope," and it will be a year of hope for a world suffering the impacts of war, the ongoing effects of the COVID-19 pandemic, and the climate crisis.

Why visit Rome during the Jubilee?

One of the benefits given during a jubilee year is the offering of a plenary indulgence. A plenary indulgence is a grace granted by the Catholic Church through the merits of Jesus Christ to remove the temporal punishment due to sin. The indulgence applies to sins already forgiven.

The faithful, "pilgrims of hope," will be able to obtain the indulgence by undertaking a pilgrimage to any sacred Jubilee site, to at least one of the four Major Papal Basilicas of Rome, to the Holy Land or to other designated sites, and taking part in a moment of prayer, a liturgical celebration or celebrating the sacrament of reconciliation. The indulgence can also be obtained by "devoutly visiting any Jubilee site" and taking part in Eucharistic adoration or meditation, concluding with the Our Father, the Profession of Faith, and appropriate invocations to Mary.

Furthermore, on the occasion of the Jubilee, it will be possible to obtain the indulgence, under the same conditions, by traveling to other sacred places in the city of Rome, such as the designated Basilicas, Sanctuaries, and churches of the Jubilee Pathway.

The indulgence can also be gained by visiting other places in the world, including, among others, the two minor Papal Basilicas in Assisi, St Francis' Basilica and that of Santa Maria degli Angeli, and the Pontifical Basilicas of the Madonna di Loreto, the Madonna of Pompeii, and Saint Anthony of Padua.

Why attend our upcoming Pilgrimage to Rome/Assisi?

Father Rey has particularly chosen to lead a pilgrimage to Rome and Assisi in March in order to offer our parishioners the opportunity to participate as fully as possible in this upcoming Jubilee Year, (we will be visiting those places above that are bolded). The hotels, the company, and the prayerful Jubilee atmosphere will all add up to a wonderful, once-in-a-life time experience. To learn more about the trip, please either visit <https://app.nativitypilgrimage.com/trip/?trip=14023> or take one of the brochures displayed in the entrance of the church. The trip is limited to 50, so please register soon.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 116

I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

I love the LORD because he has heard
my voice in supplication,
because he has inclined his ear to me
the day I called.

R. I will walk before the Lord,
in the land of the living.

The cords of death encompassed me;
the snares of the netherworld seized upon me;
I fell into distress and sorrow,
and I called upon the name of the LORD,
"O LORD, save my life!"

R. I will walk before the Lord,
in the land of the living.

Gracious is the LORD and just;
yes, our God is merciful.
The LORD keeps the little ones;
I was brought low, and he saved me.

R. I will walk before the Lord,
in the land of the living.

For he has freed my soul from death,
my eyes from tears, my feet from stumbling.
I shall walk before the Lord
in the land of the living.

R. I will walk before the Lord,
in the land of the living.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Galatians 6:14

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord
through which the world has been crucified to me and I to the world.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

COMMUNION HYMN

10,000 Reasons
by Matt Redman

*Bless the Lord, o my soul, o my soul
Worship His holy name
Sing like never before, o my soul
I'll worship Your holy name*

The sun comes up, it's a new day dawning
It's time to sing Your song again
Whatever may pass and whatever lies before me
Let me be singing when the evening comes

(Refrain)

You're rich in love and You're slow to anger
Your name is great and Your heart is kind
For all Your goodness, I will keep on singing
Ten thousand reasons for my heart to find

(Refrain)

And on that day when my strength is failing
The end draws near and my time has come
Still, my soul will sing Your praise unending
Ten thousand years and then forevermore

(Refrain)
